Thailand proudly proclaims that it has never been colonized. It has retained its unique culture, traditions and language. With a long, rich heritage and abundant natural resources, Thailand is one of the most exotic countries in Asia. Thailand is divided into four main regions. The Central Plains where the capital city of Bangkok is located. The Northern region, dominated by Chiang Mai, is an area of mountains and fertile valleys. The Northeast has harsh climatic conditions. The South is famous for its fine crystal sand beaches and idyllic limestone islands. The famous island region. Phuket is surrounded by the beautiful Andaman Sea.
